NORTHWEST SEASON
WILL OPEN THURSDAYFirst Game at Seattle To Be Played With Butte—
Other Sport News

Seattle, Wash., April 22.—The Chicago Colored Giants furnished the opposition for the Seattle Northwestern league team here today. Another contest is scheduled for Sunday.

The Northwestern league season opens next Thursday with Joe McGinnity's Butte club here.

The Commercial club of Seattle plan to have a record breaking crowd for the opening day.

John D. Liberal.
New York, April 22.—While he was golfing at Lakewood, one of John D. Rockefeller's drives hit Mrs. Hyman Goldman, so the oil king gave her little daughter, Celia, seven cents in new pennies.

Weeks Beat Mitchell.
Seattle, Wash., April 22.—Billy Weeks, Canadian middleweight champion, defeated Ed Mitchell of Seattle, in a four-round fight last night at the Elks club. On the same card Frankie Sullivan and Leo Houck, featherweights, went to the fastest draw seen here in many moons.

Seven Co-ed Ball Teams.
Eugene, Ore., April 22.—Seven baseball teams composed entirely of co-eds have been organized at the University of Oregon. The teams will compete for the "midnight doughnut" trophy, hung up as an annual baseball prize by Lair H. Gregory seven years ago.

The girls also have organized clubs for archery, walking, golf, swimming and tennis. The co-ed field day is set for May 27.

Moran to Meet Morris.
Tulsa, Okla., April 22.—Frank Moran and Carl Morris will meet here May 20 in a 10-round bout, it was announced today.

In Shape for Race.
Philadelphia, April 22.—Yale and Pennsylvania armmen were pronounced by their coaches to be in perfect shape for their annual race on the Schuylkill river this afternoon. The varsity and junior varsity of each university will race over a mile and a half course.

Aggies Have Strongest Team.
Seattle, Wash., April 22.—The Oregon Aggies have the strongest baseball team in the northwestern conference. This is according to Jimmy Richardson, umpire of yesterday's melee in which the Corvallis farmers triumphed over Bud Brinker's U. of W. lads, 7 to 2.

Jimmy has seen all of the teams in action now, and should know whereof he speaks. The locals made eight errors yesterday, proving, however, that the squad was a bit off form.

White to Meet Ritchie.
Milwaukee, Wis., April 22.—Charlie White and Ritchie Mitchell were matched today for a 10-round fight next month.

The Soul Market
Sunday and Monday

Mme. Petrova, the talented, dramatic star, who stands at the head of her profession in the artistic delineation of distinctive types, upon the screen, will be seen here at the Oregon on Sunday and Monday, in "The Soul Market," a marvelous Metro feature picture produced in five gripping acts by Popular Players and Players. In addition to Mme. Petrova, there are half a score of noted stage and screen artists appearing in this feature, including Arthur Hops, Winthrop Meekyl, Gypsy O'Brien,

PEARL WHITE.
The star in "The Lion Claw" series starting at the Bligh on May 2 and 3.STANFORD IS WINNER
OF EIGHT-OARED RACEGreat Crew Came In Fresh,
with California Crew
"All In"

Oakland, Cal., April 22.—Stanford's varsity crew defeated the University of California oarsmen in their annual race on Oakland estuary today. A huge crowd cheered the eights at the finish.

The crews got away to a perfect start and pulled neck and neck over the first mile, while the observation train filled with cheering rooters followed the boats.

After the first mile had been passed Stanford's strength began to show and the cardinal tipped oars forged steadily into the lead, gaining at every stroke.

Coxswain Camper, of the Bears, yelled for more speed and the California eight rallied bravely, but Clune and Hardy of the state university crew obviously were in distress and not doing their best.

As they swept into the third and final mile Stanford let out a few links and whipped up its stroke. The cardinals rowed like machines, dipping the oars perfectly and sending their shells ripping through the smooth water. They were pulling at top form, just as they did at Poughkeepsie last year.

California's crew, the best in the school's history, did its best but it was outrowed. Stanford surged past the judge's boat at the finish six or more lengths ahead. Every man fresh and pulling strong. "Chic" Orme, the Cardinals' captain, who was understood to be in poor form, hauled on his oars like a giant all the way and finished as well as any of his crew.

As California, still hitting up the stroke, came across the finish Clune and Hardy drooped over their oars, almost toppling out of the boat. They were "all in" and had rowed the last mile on their nerve.

Evelyn Brent, Fritz de Lint, Franke Fraunholz, Charles Mack, Cora Milholland, Al Thomas and Grace Florence.

Life behind the scenes at a prominent Broadway theatre is shown in this sensational production, and many well known places along the Great White Way were used to obtain the real settings for the story. Mme. Petrova was never seen to better advantage, for the role she assumed in a typical Petrova part.

Pacific Coast League Standings.

	W.	L.	Pct.
Los Angeles	11	5	.688
Oakland	10	7	.588
Vernon	9	9	.500
Portland	7	9	.438
San Francisco	7	11	.389
Salt Lake	5	9	.355

Yesterday's Results.
At Portland—No game with Salt Lake, wet grounds.
At San Francisco—Vernon, 4; Oakland, 3.
At Los Angeles—Los Angeles, 2; San Francisco, 1.

Coming from behind the Vernon Tigers scored Clint Prough of Oakland so he tossed over a wild pitch and gave Ham Patterson's men the game by one point.

That soiled Prough's spotless record, for up to the fatal moment of the heave he had three straight victories to his credit.

The little man from Egypt was among those present in Los Angeles, and the Angels won from the Seals, 2 to 1, in a melee full of weird twists.

Finstancer, Couch scored San Francisco's lone tally when Schaller rolled a feeble daisy cutter to Walter, who picked up the little round thing and stood meditating on it like Hamlet with the skull, until the score was made.

The arena was called for at Boston when Brooklyn, obstinately the home nine 10 to 3. The Braves evidently thought it was Christmas, judging from the way they yielded up runs.

Al Demaree, who used to pitch for the Giants, adorned the hill for Philadelphia and held his former colleagues to three hits, Philly winning, 6 to 2.

One Honus Wagner, an old man of the Santa Class type, who is said to remember distinctly seeing Washington at the battle of Bull Run, slammed out two three baggers and more Pittsburg beat St. Louis 5 to 0.

Even with Cobb and Crawford on the hospital list Detroit managed to ease a win out of the White Sox. Fournier hit for a round trip in the fourth, giving Chicago its tally.

Cleveland's pitchers were bananas and cream for the hungry St. Louis batters and the score was 11 to 1.

SENATORS MAY PLAY
FIRST GAME WITH PENITENTIARY TEAMManager Baker Endeavors to Secure Practice Game for Tomorrow

The game between the Salem Senators and Dallas, which was to have opened the season in Salem tomorrow, has been called off on account of wet grounds and the regular season will be opened in the Capital City April 30 or in case Salem enters the league the first game will be between the Senators and Woodburn on that date. The park at the end of State street is on low ground and the recent rains caused water to stand in puddles all over the field and it is feared that some of the players who venture out without their anti-skid chains will mire in the mud.

As a substitute practice game it is probable that the Senators will trot out against the Penitentiary team inside the prison grounds for a game tomorrow. All of the arrangements have not been completed and it is not finally settled that the Senators and the convicts will meet but the Senators prefer a practice game that will not eat into their expense account since there is no admission to be charged.

Manager Ray Baker has secured the services of Cole, of Stanton, and Barham, of Dallas, in addition to Craig to bolster up his pitching staff. The receiving and will be taken care of by Hauser and Gill, Jones, who was signed with Woodburn earlier in the season, will play with the Senators this season. Humphries, Miller, Wilson and Adams will convert about the infield and Bell and a change pitcher of a utility man will fill in the outfield.

The penitentiary team has been going good this year and they are expected to profit by their better condition when they meet the Senators. The team has been playing ball for two months while the Senators will necessarily show numerous rough spots in their playing which will only be polished off by steady practice.

Looking for Villa In Los-Angeles Section

Los Angeles, Cal., April 22.—Major E. Goldbaum Y. Padilla, refused to affirm or deny today reports that he is here searching for Francisco Villa who was supposed to have been hiding in this locality since the Columbus raid.

Padilla is head of the Sonora state police. He refused to reveal the object of his visit here. He admitted, however, that it was of the utmost importance to his government.

When asked if he was investigating movements here of two known active Mexican juntas to institute a new revolution, he reiterated his statement that he was pledged not to talk.

Drager Enlarges
Roseburg Packing House

That new improvements will be installed at once, costing probably $1000, was the statement of W. F. Drager, who arrived from Salem this morning to look after his local pruned packing plant and obtain data on the next season's crop. According to Mr. Drager, the improvements will consist of new machinery, embodying his own patented device for processing fruit, and the adding of more room to the plant in North Roseburg.

At the present time all indications point to a good crop so far, says Mr. Drager. The trees have blossomed well and are in better condition generally than they were at the same time last year. Last year the W. F. Drager Company only shipped a little over 30 cars from this section, but this year it is hoped to bring the shipments up to the standard of over 100 cars, where it was the year before and previous.

Mr. Drager will have a crew of carpenters at work about next week on the plant here, and the processing apparatus will be put in immediately—Roseburg Review.

SPORT GOSSIP

The Old Fox insists with pardonable pride that he has the best pitching staff in the circuit. With the great Walter Johnson as the star, Griffith has five other right-handers in Shaw, Gullia, Ayers, Dumont and Rice, together with three southpaws in Harper, Boehring and Bentley.

According to advices from Elkins, W. Va., Del Gainer, the Red Sox utility first baseman, has decided to quit the game for good.

Manager Lee Fohl, of the Cleveland Indians, has released pitcher Nick Carter to the Indianapolis club, under an optional agreement. Carter formerly pitched in the Ohio State league.

Manager Carrigan, of Boston, has acquired Clarence Walker, heavy-hitting outfielder of the St. Louis Americans. Duffy Lewis, Boston's left fielder, is out of the game at present with an injured thumb, and Walker may play his position.

Robert McRoy, of the Cleveland American league club, has announced that two players have been sent to the minors from the Indian squad. They are Fred Thomas, third baseman, sent to New Orleans, and Al Collamore, pitcher, sent to Portland, Ore.

When Jeff Tesreau, the New York Giants' pitcher, received a telegram at Beaumont, Texas, on April 1, announcing that he was the father of twins he refused to tell anybody what the message contained until he verified its contents from New York. Mrs. Tesreau and the babies were said to be doing well. The big pitcher at first thought he was the victim of an April fool joke.

A traveling man, who played in the big leagues several years ago, is authority for the assertion that if Hans Lobert does start the season on third base for the New York Giants, he will not last. He said that Lobert is in bad shape. Not only is he overweight, but his legs cannot stand the gaff.

"Texas Ed" Appleton, the young pitcher of the Robins, is developing a knuckle ball. Robins already claims that "Texas Ed" can break the ball either in or out. If Appleton's knuckle ball becomes as effective, or as famous as Rucker's, the boy from Texas will not need to worry about the future.

Johnny Evers is quoted as saying in Boston last week that it will be next to impossible for the umpires in the National league to get his out this season. The little Trojan declared that he is going to keep "off the umpire" and help George Stallings win another pennant.

The Phillies met their first reverse of the training trip in a game with the Richmond Internationals, on April 6, when they lost the services of Catcher Jack Adams, who had his finger badly split in the fourth inning, by one of Joe Oeschger's fast ones. Jack will probably be out of the game for five or six weeks.

Johnny Evers, of the Boston Braves, ran afoul of a Washington policeman last week, and came off second best. Johnny motored from Baltimore in an automobile which didn't carry a District of Columbia tag. He was released at the police station when he promised to get the offending automobile right out of the district.

SCHOOL MONEY APPORTIONED

County Superintendent of Schools W. I. Reynolds is busy today apportioning common school funds among the 73 districts in Polk county and expects to have the task completed before the day is done. The common school fund contains $18,973.34 and this it being divided between the several schools according to their size.

At the same time County Treasurer Holman has been apportioning special school funds. All the districts do not profit by this division of money, as only those districts where special levies were ordered can receive the special school money. The special funds amount to $10,469.13, as far as the present apportionment is concerned, and 58 school districts will profit by the division. Each is receiving a share of the returns from the assessment, which it levied. The present amount is only part of the total collections. In the present apportionment Dallas gets $1,198.18; Monmouth, $542.82; Independence, $1,014.95; West Salem, $389.77; Polk City, $913.51, and the other districts smaller amounts. To date Dallas has received from its special school levy $4,136 and there is more to be collected and apportioned. This sum includes some taxes for previous years—Dallas Observer.

BUYS CARLOAD OF HOLSTEINS.

The Nickum ranch near Buell has recently purchased a carload of thirty-two registered Holstein cows, with a few calves in the lot, from a California breeder, the price paid ranging from $125 to $200 per head. This ranch was formerly owned by Mr. Paul and was operated as a hop farm. The present owners are converting it into a model dairy ranch, and have just completed some extensive improvements on the place. Cattlemen who have inspected the cows received last week say they are a splendid lot and in the pink of condition. It is the purpose of the Nickums to add to the herd from time to time—Dallas Observer.

NEAR MONUMENT TO PATRIOTISM

In drumming up the recruits to increase the regular army by 20,000 men, as recently authorized by congress, army officers detailed to recruiting service are using novel means, especially in the large cities. Every endeavor is made to enlist desirable young men.

In New York one army officer took the streets in an automobile adorned with recruiting posters and arguments, and another has set up his recruiting tent at the Columbus circle entrance to Central park, at the foot of the Maine Memorial monument. A scene at the tent is shown in the picture.
